

author, illustrator, songwriter, designer

Co-author of the nonfiction humor book WOOF: Women Only Over Fifty (Echelon Press) and author/illustrator of two picture books: Wendel Wordsworth: No Words for Wendel and Little Bitty Kitty (Bev Bruemmer Books). Co-creator of The STEP Program.

Personal and professional causes include literacy, women's issues, animal advocacy and hospice/palliative care. VP of Orange Duffel Bag Foundation. www.OrangeDuffelBagFoundation.org

Black has a daughter and granddaughter, and lives near the historic town square of Marietta, Georgia, with her husband and two kitties.

dianablack.net
diana-designs.net
info@dianablack.net
770.845.9800

Copyright 2011 Diana Black. All rights reserved. No portion of brochure and/or designs may be used, reproduced, copied or duplicated.

diana black

Recent Events:

Decatur Book Fest (GA)

Mecca Fest 2010 (GA)

Northside Methodist
Gift Show (GA)

Harrison County Library Book Signing (IN)

Corydon (IN) Elementary School Visit Pre K-3

North Las Vegas
Kindergarten Skype Visit

11th Annual Pulpwood
Queens Author Event
Jefferson TX

www.WoofersClub.com

WOOF:
Where every woman
over fifty is top dog!

www.TheSTEPProgram.com

Educators step outside the box and stay within curriculum guidelines!

www.NotablesJewelry.com

NEW!

Black recently launched her original, handmade line of jewelry inspired by music.

info@dianablack.net 770.845.9800

www.WendelWordsworth.com

"The perfect read-along!"
—Mary Cunningham, author,
Cynthia's Attic Series

Teacher tools
available!

www.LittleBittyKitty.com

"It made me think of Dr. Seuss!"
—T. L Gray, author, pop-fiction

Teacher tools
available!

Available for in-person and Skype author visits to book clubs and elementary schools

www.DianaBlack.net
www.WendelWordsworth.com
www.LittleBittyKitty.com
www.WoofersClub.com
www.TheSTEPProgram.com
www.NotablesJewelry.com
www.WomensWednesdayWeblink.blogspot.com